"Social Entrepreneurship for Arts" Project

The "Social Entrepreneurship for Arts" (SE4A) project is financed by the European Commission through the Erasmus+ program under the Cooperation Partnerships for Vocational Education and Training, 2021 Call for proposals. The SE4A Project consortium partners come from six EU countries - Germany, Italy, Greece, Ireland, Bulgaria, and Cyprus.

Latest updates!

The project management team participated held a TPM in Matera, Italy on the 26th and 27th of January 2023.

The piloting of the training material has taken place in the partner countries, Germany, Italy, Cyprus, Bulgaria, Ireland, and Greece and valuable feedback has been collected and will be integrated into the finalized versions of the training content.

The e-learning training platform has been set up and the uploading of the training content has started.

Partners' local networks have grown to embrace the SE4A project aims by actively participating in the project's activities.
